PLAZA

"The Rights of Man," a five part masterpiece preaching a powerful sermon against war, with its devastations and horrors, is to be the main photo-attraction at the Plaza, the first half of the week commencing with today's matinee and coming at such an opportune time, it should prove a big drawing card in itself. The story is skillfully handled, and, though dealing with a delicate subject at this hour—war—the company producing the picture has insisted upon a maintenance of strict restraint from a definite depiction of any of the belligerent countries, with the result that the lesson intended is forcefully driven home without any reflection, and in a manner which permits the audience to place its sympathies with the young American doctor hero, the role to be assumed by the popular star, Richard Buhler, and the beautiful young Princess heroine whom he marries, to bring to the land of freedom and happiness—America. "The Rights of Man" is claimed by critics to be the most impelling and significant of photoplays inspired by the European war.

"On the Veranda," delightfully original and snappy musical comedy based upon happy incidents of learning days, is to headline the vaudeville end of the program. The song numbers are new, as is everything else in the act and the individual performers are possessed of exceptional advantage in their various specialties. Graceful dances are also in order and complete scenic equipment greatly enhances the daintiness of the piece. Bobby Higgins and Vivian Rogers will undoubtedly be popular favorites in their classy singing, talking and dancing skit that is extremely funny. Both are finished artists and their material is of the sort that could not fail to bring response from a vaudeville audience. The Melody Trio in a comedy singing offering that is different from anything before this time before presented locally and The Ringlins in their sensational and daring aerial novelty complete the vaudeville attractions.

In addition to the big photoplay, "The Pay Train" and "The Beautiful Belinda" have been contracted for.

POLPS

A selected program of the highest class vaudeville and feature pictures has been obtained for today's appearance at the new Polps theatre. "The Petticoat Minstrel," that large and modernized minstrel first-part which is comprised exclusively of active and pretty girl dancers, singers and funsters, comes to Polps. This performance is accorded the greatest merit by metropolitan vaudeville writers, and is said to contain an entirely unique book enhanced by many specialties that are originated by the talented young women—nine in number.

As a special feature screen drama Emmy Wehlen, the talented and dainty Viennese actress seen in "Tables Turned," a tense and novel theme based upon a fictitious marriage that turns out legitimate. The complications that ensue in the unexpected finish create situations and moments when the greatest dramatic art and extreme versatility are shown by Miss Wehlen and the able cast that sustains her.

Other acts specially selected for the opening half of the week are Arnaut Brothers, whose acrobatic novelties, including a novelty finish, has been the comment of the past week at the sumptuous Palace theatre in New York; Rosner's dogs, the most effective and highly trained act that appears on American stages; Lillian & Lucille in their surprising novel; George McFadden dean of all Celtic characters with an entirely new repertoire of comic song and jest, and Charles Gilmore and Company, who present their scintillatingly ludicrous farce "Such Extravagance."

Other comedy and romantic pictures never seen in Bridgeport before are shown upon the screen.

EMPIRE

Oliver Morosco is to be congratulated upon his success in signing Miss Blanche Ring, the celebrated comedienne, to appear in the film version of her great comedy triumph, "The Yankee Girl," which will be the featured attraction at Keeney's Empire theatre, the home of first run Paramount and Universal Broadway master-productions today and tomorrow.

In selecting this play as the initial motion picture vehicle for the well known stage star, Morosco has afforded in this subject in the way of beautiful scenic and photographic offerings, this in addition to the knowledge, adaptability to Miss Ring's particular ability.

Beautiful marine scenes taken at the world famous Catalina Islands, the haughty scenes taken at the Fernandez Sanchez ranch house, together with many other scenes taken from nature and all affording a most beautiful as well as picturesque setting.

The story is of a copper feud in the tropics, of the light breezy American variety and one that will entertain the young and old alike.

Numerous other select and entertaining photoplay features will also be shown rounding out an altogether pleasing photoplay program.

LYRIC

Jack Walt, a noted newspaper writer on all subjects, is responsible for the New York Safety Theatre success, "Help Wanted," and judging from every report, he has accomplished a most extraordinary literary result, new and original story, dealing with a very stirring subject, that of the great divide between employer and employee, and the attending chances of those in quest of a means of their livelihood are undergoing. "Help Wanted" will be the eleventh production of the very successful stock season of Cecil Spooner and her company of dramatic celebrities at the Lyric theatre, and a thoroughly and complete scenic and general detail equipment has been provided for this play, and in which Miss Spooner, in the part of "Gertrude Meyer," will present a character of her direct line, and of the style in which the popular little star reaches an excellent point of dramatic effort. In "Help Wanted" there will be several added players, including Edna May Spooner, who is to engage in a return and farewell week performances in the support of her sister.

P. A. Y. E. CARS OF TWO TYPES FOR LINES HERE SOON

Of the 92 prepayment cars which the Connecticut company is having built, 46 in Springfield, at the shops of the Wason Manufacturing company, and 46 at the Osgood Bradley Car company plant in Worcester, there are two distinct types. The Wason cars two distinct types. The Wason cars those from Bradley's will be only semi-convertible. The difference, though hardly apparent during the closed-car season, will be conspicuous in summer. The convertible cars have windows in two sashes, and a wooden panel beneath, all of which in warm weather will be removed and stored away, leaving the sides wide open from the roof to within a few inches of the floor. Leatherette curtains will keep out rain, and iron gratings will prevent passage through the openings, entrance and exit of all times being through the prepayment platform. The semi-convertible cars have large windows, sliding out of sight into pockets, on patented runways, and while sometimes preferable for rainy weather, will differ but slightly from ordinary closed cars, so far as amount of open space is concerned, even with the windows open. In all other respects the two types will be similar.

Cars of the semi-convertible type are presently used by the Boston Elevated Railway company and the Bay State Street Railway company, two large Massachusetts systems, and nearer home there are a few in Middletown, and on the new "green" line from Middletown to Waterbury. The full convertibles have long been in use by the Third Avenue Railway company in New York, and are operated in Springfield and Worcester.

The first of the new lot of cars will go to Bridgeport next week.

The new oil-burning superdreadnaught Nevada arrived at Rockland, Me., for her acceptance trials.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It—Drive Them Off With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights. Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever bothered with "green" taste, a bad breath, a dull, restless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.—Adv.
